

Courses for Educators

1465 Mt. Vernon Avenue, Marion, Ohio 43302
(740) 389-OSUM • www.marion.ohio-state.edu

Courses for Winter 2008 (January 3–March 7)

Note – Traditional classes may meet during finals week, Mar. 10-13. Check with your professor.

These courses are appropriate for the MA program.

Check with your professional development committee for re-licensure approval.

Courses marked with an * are required for the M.A. program.

What's John Dewey got to do with your classroom? Find out more:

Edu P&L 650.02
50074-6

History of Modern Education

Mr. Pete Volker

Monday, 5:00 – 7:30 p.m. (3 credits: Graduate or Undergraduate)

- Theories, practices, relations with other social institutions and forces
- Satisfies the Foundations requirement for the MA degree only for those who did not take this course as part of their bachelor's degree

Online Course for Winter 2008

How do you KNOW which books are culturally appropriate? Find out in this course:

Edu T&L 864D
B50260-0

Multicultural Literature for Children

Dr. Mary Jo Fresch

Online Course – Hours Arranged (3 credits: Graduate)

- Looks at theoretical perspectives, issues, trends, and controversies related to children's multicultural literature selections
- Appropriate for teachers at any level
- Satisfies the multicultural requirement for the M.A. degree or may serve as an elective
- Those who attend the Children's Literature Conference on October 19 can extend their learning with this 3-credit literature option.

Projected Courses for Spring 2008 (March 24-May 30)

How can you successfully include ALL students? Find out more with these options:

Edu PAES 650

Introduction to Exceptional Children

Ms. Donna Coale

Thursday, 4:30-7:00. (3 credits: Graduate or Undergraduate)

- Overview of the education of exceptional learners
- Includes learner characteristics, historical approaches, and contemporary practices

Edu PAES 669

Teaching Students with Disabilities in Inclusive Settings

Ms. Jackie Johnson

Monday, 4:30-7:00. (3 credits: Graduate or Undergraduate)

- Practical, low cost, classroom tested approaches that are also consistent with educational theory
- Note – This course is specific to early childhood (grades PreK-3)

EDU T&L 620.20

Issues of Theory and Practice in the Inclusive Classroom

Ms. Kelly Brazeau

Tuesday, 4:30-7:00 (3 credits: Graduate or Undergraduate)

- Includes collaborative models between general and special educators, differentiated education, and strategies for accommodation
- This newly created course focuses on students in middle childhood (grades 4-9).

How DO you get parents to participate – and why should you care? Find out more:

Edu T&L 674.07

Family Participation in Early Childhood School Programs

Ms. Muir/Dr. Becher

Tuesday, 4:30-7:00 (3 credits: Graduate or Undergraduate)

- Purposes and importance of family involvement
- Types of program, methods, and curricula

Courses for Educators

Master of Arts in Integrated Teaching and Learning

The Master of Arts degree in Integrated Teaching and Learning is a post-baccalaureate degree that serves practicing teachers at all levels (preschool through grade twelve). It may also meet the needs of professionals who provide educationally related services. Although some courses emphasize the learning needs of elementary school children, most courses include broad perspectives that are appropriate for teachers of adolescents as well.

An advisor will help you select from a variety of courses to design a degree plan tailored to your needs and interests. You may choose a nonthesis plan (minimum 50 graduate credit hours and a culminating project or examination) or a thesis plan (minimum 45 graduate credit hours, plus a thesis and oral examination). Graduate hours applied to the M.A. degree must be taken within a 6 year period.

• Registration Information •

Current OSU students may register through the on-line registration system (www.ureg.ohio-state.edu) using the call number listed next to each course. If you have not taken graduate courses at OSU, contact the Admissions Office at (740) 389-OSUM, ext. 6242 .

• Tuition Fee Waivers •

Many local school districts have earned tuition fee waivers for their work with Ohio State Marion's preservice education students. Contact the personnel supervisor in your district to find out if this applies to you. If your district has available free waivers, you can get the required form from your personnel supervisor.

• Application Deadlines •

Application deadlines are:

- July 1 Autumn Quarter
- October 15 Winter Quarter
- February 1 Spring Quarter
- April 1 Summer Quarter

Admissions requirements include: 1) an earned BA/BS from an accredited college or university with a minimum 3.0 GPA (or, with a lower GPA, satisfactory completion of the Graduate Record Exam) and a 3.3 overall GPA in all previous graduate work, 2) three letters of recommendation, 3) a letter of intent and 4) required

ONLY for applicants from non-English speaking countries, a minimum score of 550 of the Test of English as a Foreign Language. Submit all materials by the deadline for the appropriate quarter. Contact the Admissions Office if you are submitting materials past the deadline. Note: You may take up to 10 credit hours in graduate nondegree status before you are formally accepted into the M.A. program.

• Delaware Center •

Our Delaware Center is located near the corner of US 23 and Orange Road, just 4 miles north of I-270.

• 2007-2008 Fees for Graduate Credit •

(subject to change)

| Credits | Cost |
|---------|---------|
| 1 | $394 |
| 2 | $630 |
| 3 | $944 |
| 4 | $1,259 |
| 5 | $1,574 |
| 6 | $1,888 |
| 7 | $2,203 |
| 8 | $2,517 |
| 9 | $2,832 |
| 10+ | $3,147 |